

CheapAir.com Wins Gold, Silver 2018 Magellan Awards from Travel Weekly

Excellence Cited for Booking Interface, Website and Blog; Brings Total to Eight Magellan Awards for CheapAir.com in Last Three Years

Calabasas, CA (October 31, 2018) – CheapAir.com today announced the online travel agency won three Magellan Awards for 2018 from Travel Weekly, the most influential B2B news resource for the travel industry. CheapAir.com’s booking interface, which was recognized with a Silver Magellan in 2017, received a Gold award this year. The company’s website and blog, also recognized in the past, each received Silver awards for 2018.

“We pride ourselves on continuously making enhancements to our user experience, based on customer feedback and suggestions,” said Jeff Klee, CEO of CheapAir. “The fact that those enhancements and our commitment to innovation have been recognized by the industry again this year, especially with a Gold, is truly validating in terms of how we strive to do business every day.”

Booking Interface receives Gold.

Several features in CheapAir.com’s booking interface are unique to the industry and account for its Gold citation for excellence. These include the ability to view fare brands across airlines for simple comparison, airfare transparency that allows users to easily view everything that’s included in the price for informed decision-making, enhanced inflight experience information including images of unique cabin features like seat pitch, and simple airfare comparison that explains upgrade options alongside the lowest price available for a particular fare.

Website, Blog receive Silver.

The company’s website continues to receive Magellan awards (this is the third consecutive year it has been recognized with an award) for its streamlined user experience that is simple, straightforward and clean in a competitive environment that is often cluttered and confusing. Enhancements to the site in recent years include the ability to pay with bitcoin cash, Dash or Litecoin digital currencies, and a monthly payment option that allows customers to extend flight costs over several months.

CheapAir.com’s Silver-winning blog (also recognized in 2016 with a Silver) continues to create unique, helpful flight and airfare content, travel tips and inspiration for its readers. Through extensive pioneering research, CheapAir.com found a gap in the public’s understanding of when to buy flights and what days to fly to save money. The company took that knowledge and shared it on their blog in the form of posts like their “Annual ‘When to Buy’ Flights Study,” a “Prime Booking Window Guide,” the “Holiday Flight Guide,” and the “Summer Flight Guide.”

The Magellan Awards receive entries from top travel organizations and professionals worldwide. The awards are judged by a panel of top travel professionals representing the best names and most accomplished leaders from the industry.
